

CHERYL JAMISON

EASTRIDGE CHURCH

Cheryl Jamison brings over 40 years of ministry leadership, driven by a passion to empower women to live with purpose, passion, and practical faith. Alongside her husband of 44 years, Steve Jamison, Cheryl serves as Global Pastor at Eastridge Church in Issaquah, Washington—where their ministry impact extends from the I-90 corridor to the ends of the Earth.

After 25 years as Lead Pastors of Eastridge, Steve and Cheryl recently transitioned into their current roles as Global Pastors, focusing on strategic leadership and legacy development in partnership with ministries around the world.

Beyond her work at Eastridge, Cheryl serves on the governance board of Convoy of Hope, a global, faith-based humanitarian relief organization. She is credentialed through The General Council of the Assemblies of God and brings a strong commitment to integrity, compassion, and faith in every area of her life.

Cheryl finds her greatest joy in her roles as a wife, mother, and grandmother. She is known for blending humor, grace, truth, and biblical insight to both challenge and encourage those around her. Her unwavering consistency—in family, ministry, and character—is one of her most valued contributions to the Eastridge team.

When asked what she loves most about leadership, Cheryl responds:

"Celebrating the wins with others as they discover who they are in Christ and how they're called to grow every day."
